
Potassium metabisulfite

General characteristics

The Potassium metabisulfite is in the form of crystalline powder of white-cream color and characteristic odor of sulfur dioxide, sometimes also pungent. The Potassium metabisulfite is an additive that performs various functions: antiseptic capability against unwanted microflora; acidifying function; antioxidasic and antioxidant capacity; It can also be used in aqueous solution (20 g / liter of water) to sterilize containers and bottles.

Dosage and method of use

Refer to the current legislation in the field of use.

Indicate the product label.

Packaging and storage

Bags of 1 kg, 5 kg bags, 25 kg bags.

Store in a dry place away from heat sources.